11. IDENTIFICATION OF CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

A conflict of interest involves the abuse, actual, apparent, or potential, of the trust that people have in professionals. A conflict of interest is a situation in which financial or other personal considerations have the potential to compromise or bias professional judgment and objectivity.

An apparent conflict of interest is one in which a reasonable person would think that the professional's judgment is likely to be compromised. A potential conflict of interest involves a situation that may develop into an actual conflict of interest.

It is important to note that a conflict of interest exists whether or not decisions are affected by a personal interest. A conflict of interest implies only the potential for bias, not likelihood.

It is the formal policy of the Provider to avoid as far as possible all actual and potential conflicts of interest.

In determining whether there is or may be a conflict of interest to which this policy applies, the Provider shall, in particular, consider whether there is any risk of prejudice to any client, taking into account whether the Provider and/or any representative, associate or employee of the Provider:

- is likely to gain financially, or avoid a financial loss, at the expense of the client;
- has an interest in the outcome of a service provided to the client or of a transaction carried out on behalf of the client, which is distinct from the client's interest in that outcome;
- has a financial or other incentive to favour the interest of another client, group of clients or any other Third Party over the interests of the client; or
- receives or will receive from a person other than the client, an inducement in relation to a service provided to the client in the form of monies, goods or services, other than the legislated commission or reasonable fee for that service.

12. MANAGEMENT OF CONFLICT OF INTEREST

Any queries by employees of the Provider in regard to conflicts of interest potential, actual or apparent must be referred to the Key Individual, who is the person responsible for the identification and management of conflicts of interest. Any decision by the Key Individual shall be final and binding.

The Provider shall establish and maintain a Gifts Register maintained on the Kotive compliance record keeping system, wherein all immaterial financial interests shall be recorded by each representative to ensure compliance with the limitations set for such immaterial financial interests.

This Conflict of Interest Management Policy shall be viewed holistically and shall not concentrate on remuneration issues only. The policy shall have as its sole purpose the intention of ensuring that at all times financial services are rendered honestly, fairly, with due skill, care and diligence, and in the interests of clients and the integrity of the financial services industry .

All Key Individuals of the business shall regularly review the terms and conditions of the relationship between the business and all product suppliers and other financial services providers in order to identify potential, apparent or actual conflicts of interest and shall also regularly review the procedures adopted to prevent such conflicts in compliance with this policy.

Key Individuals shall be responsible for ensuring that all employees of the business are adequately exposed to the concept of conflicts of interest and shall provide appropriate training to employees and shall be responsible for ensuring the adherence of employees to the policy.

13. MEASURES FOR THE DISCLOSURE OF CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

Where the Provider has considered the circumstances surrounding a possible conflict of interests and has determined for reasons that may have arisen at that time, that it is impossible to avoid such conflict of interest, the Provider shall at that time take such measures as may be reasonable to mitigate the prejudice to client.

In circumstances referred to above, the Provider, or representative, as the case may be, shall be required to notify the client of the possibility of the conflict and shall disclose full details of the nature of the possible prejudice to the client.

The written notification to the client shall also contain details and reasons why the conflict of interest cannot be avoided in the circumstances and the client shall be asked to confirm in writing that the Provider may proceed or continue to act in the particular matter, as the case may be.

14. PROCESSES, PROCEDURES AND INTERNAL CONTROLS

The Provider shall ensure that its employees, representatives and, where appropriate, associates, are aware of the contents of this Conflict of Interest Management Policy and shall provide for appropriate training and educational material in this regard.

The Provider shall continuously monitor compliance with this Conflict of Interest Management Policy and shall conduct a review of the policy on an annual basis.

15. CONSEQUENCES OF NON-COMPLIANCE

If the Provider's Board of Directors has reasonable cause to believe that any employee, including any Key Individual, representative and/or juristic representative has failed to disclose actual or possible conflicts of interest, it shall inform such individual/s of the basis for such belief and afford such individual/s an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose.

If, after hearing the response of the individual/s in question and making such further investigation as may be warranted, the board or committee determines that the individual/s has/have in fact failed to disclose an actual or possible conflict of interest, it shall take appropriate disciplinary and corrective action.

16. BASIS OF REPRESENTATIVE'S REMUNERATION

The Provider and its representatives only receives:

- fees authorised under the Short-term Insurance Act, 1998 (Act 53 of 1998), if those fees are reasonably commensurate to a service being rendered;

- fees where authorised commissions and/or fees which are not paid;
- the amount, frequency, payment method and recipient of those fees and details of the services that are to be provided by the Provider or its representative in exchange for the fees are specifically agreed to by a client in writing;
- those fees may be stopped at the discretion of that client; and
- fees or remuneration for the rendering of a service to a Third Party which fees or remuneration are reasonable commensurate to the service rendered.

The Provider does not reward or remunerate any representative for:

- giving preference to the quantity of business secured for the provider without also giving due regard to the delivery of fair outcomes;
- giving preference to a specific product supplier, where the representative in question may recommend more than one product supplier to a client; or
- giving preference to a specific product of a product supplier, where the representative in question may recommend more than one product of that product supplier to a client.

The Provider is able to demonstrate that the determination of and entitlement to the financial interest takes into account measurable indicators relating to:

- the achievement of minimum service level standards in respect of clients;
- the delivery of fair outcomes for clients; and
- the quality of the representative's compliance with the Financial Advisory and Intermediary Services Act;

as agreed between the provider and the representative, and that sufficient weight is attached to such indicators to materially mitigate the risk of the representative giving preference to the quantity of business secured for the provider over the fair treatment of clients.
